Social support workers – Cumberland/Prospect

This innovative new program gives frail aged individuals, and people with a disability from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds, a friendly person to help within the home or community.

Join the team and know you are making a big difference in the life of a vulnerable person in your community.

Currently we seek friendly and compassionate people for:

- Gardening – 2hrs a fortnight – Greystanes & Blacktown
- Transport assistance (own car, expenses reimbursed) – weekly or fortnightly
- Assisting with regular shopping – Northmead & Auburn

For more information, call Khalil Zaki 8805 0937 (Tue, Wed, Fri) or kzaki@anglicare.org.au

Relevant security screenings are carried out for all volunteer roles.
