BBQ organiser - Malabar

Do you love standing round the barbie, cooking sausages? Here's another opportunity!

ANGLICARE's aged care and dementia facility in Malabar would like to bring back happy memories for their male residents by engaging once more in the fun of a Saturday BBQ – but they need your help for this to happen.

- Could you volunteer about two hours, once a month, on a Saturday around 5pm?
- You do the cooking, and get the residents involved too.
- Have the satisfaction of brightening the lives of some of the more vulnerable in your community.
