Support relationships between dads and kids –
Blacktown/Penrith

- Are you a bloke who is happy to kick a football around with other Dads and their kids on Saturday mornings?
- Do you care about fathers building great relationships with their kids?
- Get out in the fresh air!

ANGLICARE is keen to involve volunteers in its "Mobile Shed" program held on Saturday mornings twice a month.

Our role is to set up games and activities especially for Dads and families to enjoy together.

We provide opportunities for Dads to strengthen their relationships with their kids, and offer information and support where necessary. This is an exciting and fun program. Women and couples are also welcome as volunteers. Students studying social science courses may also be interested in the experience.
